In the beginning (before all time) was the Word (Christ), and the Word was with God, and the Word was God Himself. (John 1:1)

I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End, says the Lord God . . . (Rev. 1:8)

As I look back over this year, there has been a sense of God's presence in every part of it. There have been trials and triumphs . . . and through it all (before our year started and after it closes) God has been and will be with us. Your children have the world to discover. Discover it with them. Take time to listen to them. Make them a priority in your life. We have much to learn from these little ones: trust, compassion, humility, honesty, gentleness, patience, joy, forgiveness, perseverance, and love. They are the ones who teach us! It has been a wonderful year and God has been and will be the "Alpha and Omega."
