“It is because of the Lord’s mercies that we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning; great is thy faithfulness.” Lamentations 3:22, 23 KJV

aa

Mercy is described by Webster as “kindness in excess of what may be expected or demanded by fairness.” This week I am rejoicing in knowing that I am the mother the Lord has chosen for my children!!! What a difference it is to look at ourselves from God’s perspective. To see His mercy toward you and me. Do you pray for your children?....for a cooperative spirit or a kind heart, for respect of authority or responsibility? Do you pray for your own needs?...for patience, provision, wisdom, boldness or peace? As you greet these glorious spring mornings, give Him your day. You will be able to see Him make a difference in the lives of your family. Prayer changes lives.
